

How to approach trauma in the classroom

Course Brochure

What's it about?

In this course, you will learn what constitutes trauma, the impacts of trauma on a child's physical, cognitive, behavioural, and social development, what to be aware of in the classroom from students who may have been exposed to a potentially traumatic event, and how to talk to, teach, and care for a student who is showing the impacts of having been exposed to a potentially traumatic event.

How long does the course go for?

This course will take you approximately 2 hours to complete.

This course is on-demand and for private study. Learn at your own pace and at times that suit you. You will have ongoing access.

What are the course modules?

1. Introduction
2. What is trauma?
3. Impact of trauma
4. What are you likely to see in the classroom?
5. Your teaching
6. Reflection

Is it accredited for PD hours?

Yes. Upon completion, you will receive a certificate for your records.

This course is mapped to the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers.

It is accredited for professional development hours at the following levels:

Proficient Teacher – all states and territories except NSW

4.4 Ensure students' well-being and safety within school by implementing school and/ or system, curriculum and legislative requirements.